

ALABAMA WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
Anna Speir, President
Candace McIntosh, Executive Director

Thank you for your interest in applying for Alabama Baptist Woman's Missionary Union Scholarship. Enclosed is an information sheet and application form. After reading the information sheet, if you feel you can meet the requirements, please return the application to me before May 1, 2017. Scholarships are usually granted in June of each year.

Scholarships are also available through the Baptist Foundation. For information concerning these please request information and applications from the following address:

The Baptist Foundation
P.O. Box 241227
Montgomery, Alabama 36124

The women of Alabama WMU find great pleasure in assisting young ladies in their pursuit of a higher education. We wish for you God's richest blessings.

Sincerely,

Cynthia P. Hicks, Chair
WMU Scholarship Committee

REQUIREMENTS

June 2004

Alabama W.M.U. Scholarships

- I. As funds are available, Alabama Woman's Missionary Union provides scholarship assistance for women who meet these requirements:
 - A. The student must be an Alabamian or the daughter of a Southern Baptist Missionary serving to or from Alabama who is preparing to enter a Southern Baptist church-related vocation.
 - B. The student must be enrolled as a full-time graduate student taking a minimum of nine credit hours of study toward a master's degree in one of the Southern Baptist seminaries or Divinity schools.
 - C. Applications must be typewritten.
 - D. The student must supply letters of reference (pastor, university major professor, Sunday School teacher, plus one additional non-relative reference) using the questionnaire attached.
- II. Scholarships are granted on the basis of need, church/WMU involvement, satisfactory applications, and plans to enter a Southern Baptist church-related vocation.
- III. The amount of each scholarship is up to $1000 per semester (depending on the number of applicants and funds available), not to exceed $2000 per year. Scholarship checks are sent to the seminary indicated by the student.
- IV. Scholarships are renewable for up to six semesters (or similar terms) if the student:
 - A. Maintains a grade average of B or better.
 - B. Maintains a course load of at least nine credit hours.
 - C. Continues to prepare for a Southern Baptist church-related vocation.
 - D. Is actively involved in a local church.
 - E. Completes application for scholarship renewal before May 1.
- V. Correspondence about scholarships, requests for application forms, and requests for renewal of scholarships should be addressed to the chairperson of the scholarship committee:
