

What's new for 2025-26?

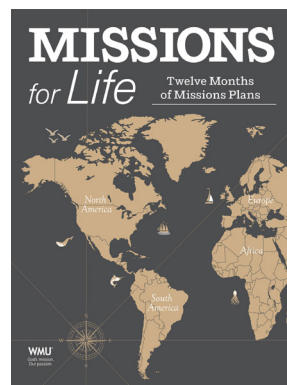

Missions Mosaic
Missions Mosaic is now quarterly: three months of content in one convenient resource four times a year. Each issue equips you with monthly Bible studies, prayer starters, and ministry and evangelism ideas and includes Prayer Patterns—daily devotions followed by a listing of missionaries on their birthdays.

Women on Mission Leader Encourage women in your church to dig deeper into missions together as you pray, learn, and go. This companion resource to Missions Mosaic includes monthly group-gathering plans, a quarterly event idea, creative ways to impact your community for Christ, and leadership tips and resources.

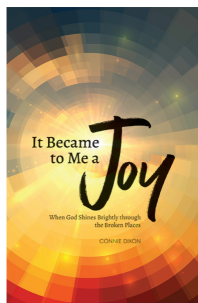

Missions for Life 2025-26
Encourage men and women to pray, learn, and go. Missions for Life includes 12 months of missions discipleship resources for adult small groups, family groups, and individuals and is great for small membership churches that need intergenerational discipleship curriculum. Also in Spanish!

Missions Leader 2025-26
Missions Leader is the ultimate planning tool for all things missions! It gives you everything you need for annual and quarterly planning of missions discipleship and involvement; ideas and plans for growing and developing your leadership team; the big picture of WMU's missions discipleship curriculum study plan for the year; and ways to be involved in missions through compassion ministries.

It Became to Me a Joy: When God Shines Brightly through the Broken Places
National WMU president Connie Dixon shares a real and vulnerable account that includes hardships and challenges and how the Lord used the difficult things in her life to bring about His glory. For anyone who feels not good enough, learn from a woman who found God is good enough and how He uses the broken places in life to shine His glory all the more brightly.
